

Community Satsang

Please join us for a special satsang with Devayani and company in honor of Sumanji, mother of Harsha Patni-Trivedi. We lost Sumanji to cancer on March 30, 2015. On April 2, we will honor her and her unwavering faith in God with a special satsang of her favorite chants and bhajans. We hope you can join us for this evening program as we remember the gift she gave her family... Be Strong, Live Happily, and Work Selflessly.

Please let us know if you are in need of accommodations. There are extended family nearby, and there are hotels.
